DATE: May 17, 2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The District of Mission moved unanimously to file a complaint with the RCMP on February 28, 2011 with respect to information leaked from closed council proceedings. Council's resolution was to report the suspected unauthorized release of information.

The RCMP is an autonomous and arms-length organization. Council does not advise the RCMP on how to conduct its business. It is the District's policy not to comment on ongoing police proceedings in order to allow for a fair and unbiased process.

Council wishes to remind the public that any person involved in these proceedings is innocent until proven guilty.
