

MEDIA RELEASE

DATE: January 24, 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

As part of Council's larger strategy to hold the line on spending and taxes, the 2012 draft municipal budget review is now well underway. Council is evaluating all aspects of the district's budget and has asked staff to prepare a number of reports regarding the draft budget. This additional information provided by staff will be considered as part of a very comprehensive process that will lead to decisions focused on providing tax relief and financial sustainability for Mission.

The tentative schedule for the public presentation of the 2012 budget is the second week of March – exact date to be confirmed. The finalized schedule and ongoing updates on budget deliberations are part of Council's commitment to keeping the public informed.
