

Find one of the most famous names in the forest.

Just join the dots and you'll find a famous character who's very important to the people that live in British Columbia. Hints: He's very big on the west coast. He's very important in old Indian legends. His name in Latin is Thuja plicata Donn.

Answer:

He's the western redcedar, B.C.'s official tree and he's well-known around the world for his cedar chests, beautiful siding and as a roofing material.

National Forest Week
May 5 - 11, 1991

Tomorrow's Forest — Today's Challenge